MISSON STATEMENT

RELIGION INDEX ONE: PERIODICALS (RIO®)
AND RELIGION INDEX TWO: MULTI-AUTHOR WORKS (RIT®)

It shall be the purpose of RIO® and RIT® to index those articles in the field of religion--particularly religion and religious scholarship in the West--which are germane to research in and serve to document that field. The intended audience includes scholars, teachers, and students who are engaged in the study of religion and related fields; clergy; other religious leaders; and the general reader in religion.

PREFACE

"An index is the nearest approach in the world of scholarship to charity in common life," wrote historian of science George Sarton. We hope that this 29th annual volume of the Religion Index One: Periodicals provides readers with a few helpful signposts to the complex terrain of periodical literature in the diverse fields of theology and the study of religion.

In this volume of the Religion Index One we have indexed 10,092 articles from 1,403 journal issues under 26,789 subject entries. This year we added three titles to our periodicals list: Faith & Practice, Mars Hill Review, and Nidan. Two journals appear for the last time in this edition, having recently ceased publication: Bridge: Church and Life in China Today and Taoist Resources.

Lowell K. Handy, Don Haymes, Nina Schmit, and Ric Hudgens contributed to the indexing in this volume. Chantal Jean-Baptiste and Theresa Susie Mendoza assisted in the indispensable task of journal control. Karl Frantz and Carl J. Anderson of the Information Services Department provided valuable technical assistance.

We are grateful to Directors Dennis A. Norlin, Patricia K. Adamek, and Paul Jensen and to the all of the ATLA staff for their support during the last year. And as always, we are especially grateful to the Board of Directors and to the members of the American Theological Library Association for the guidance and encouragement that makes this project possible.
